

Dr. Osama Ahmed Momtaz, Honor Swimmer, Egypt, 2007

Personal Website (None known)

Dr. Osama Ahmed Momtaz received the 1986 National Award of Excellency in Sport awarded by Egyptian President Mohamed Hosni Mubarak. He swam 21 hours and 37 minutes double-crossing of the English Channel in 1984 – the eighth swimmer to accomplish the double and all Honorees. This broke the male speed record. During his career he completed other marathons in Egypt (Nile, Suez Canal and Alexandria), Canada (Traversée Internationale du lac Memphrémagog), Italy (Venizia-San Marco, Bacoli, and Ischia) and Türkiye (Pisfor and Gerne). He held various managerial positions for the Egyptian national swimming team and Egyptian Long Distance Swimming Federation.

Expanded Biography \(Openwaterpedia\)

Long Swims Database \(Marathon Swimmers Federation\)

Arabic Translation

حصل الدكتور أسامة أحمد ممتاز على جائزة وسام الجمهورية عام 1986
منحه الرئيس المصري محمد حسني

قام بعبور مزدوج لمدة 21 ساعة و 37 دقيقة للقناة الإنجليزية في عام 1984 .
وشغل مناصب إدارية مختلفة
لمنتخب السباحة الوطني والاتحاد المصري للسباحة المسافات طويل