Dina Levačić set the female speed record for the Fastnet swim in 2023 (still holds in 2024 and beyond). She swam her first marathon swim, Faros, at age 13, competed on the FINA Grand Prix series for 6 years and placed 3rd overall in 2016, her final season.

In 2017, Dina started her solo marathon career and, over the next 7 years, completed: the Triple Crown (in 84 days, in 2017); the Original Triple Crown in 2023; Irish Triple Crown 2023; the Oceans Seven in 2023, which includes several notable swims at the time: Tsugaru Strait 3rd fastest overall; Ka'iwi Channel 3rd fastest female; and Gibraltar Strait 2nd fastest female.

Dina has also completed several first-ever swims in the Adriatic Sea that borders Croatia and has raised more than US$ 85,000 for children and adults with developmental disabilities, children born prematurely, and animals in shelters.

As of 2024, after a 14-year marathon career, she swam on 6 continents and 17 countries.
