

Alison Streeter, MBE, Honor Swimmer, Great Britain, 1985

Personal Website - None known

Alison Streeter, MBE is the Queen of the Channel® for successfully crossing the English Channel a record 43 times. In 1983, she became the first European woman to complete a double-crossing (78.8 km or 49 miles in 21 hours and 16 minutes). In 1990, she became the first woman to complete a triple-crossing (112K or 70 miles in 34 hours). She has completed the Triple Crown of marathon swimming: the English Channel, Catalina Channel and circumnavigation of Manhattan Island. She has swum the English Channel seven times in one year and was the fastest woman from France to England, the first woman to swim across the Irish Sea (North Channel) and completed three channel swims in five weeks linking Ireland, Scotland, England, Wales and France. She is also an inductee in the International Swimming Hall of Fame (2006).

Expanded Biography \(Openwaterpedia\)

Long Swims Database \(Marathon Swimmers Federation\)