Personal Website (None known)

Lyndon Dunsbee set a France-to-England speed record in the English Channel in 1984 with an 8 hours and 34 minutes crossing with the Channel Swimming Association. He was unable to again break the mark going the other direction (England-to-France) with a crossing in 1989 in 9 hours and 3 minutes. Locally he set a British Long Distance Swimming Association Torbay (2-way crossing) from Meadfoot to Brixham and back in 2 hours, 40 minutes and 50 seconds in 1986. He placed third (of 39) in the Faros Marathon in 1987. Lyndon won two of the prestigious marathon races of the day: 26.4 km Lake Zurich in 1987 in 6 hours and 15 minutes and 22 km IJsselmeer in 1989 in 4 hours, 59 minutes and 38 seconds.
