

Jerry Nason, Honor Administrator, United States of America, 2007

Videos (please help if you can find any)

Jerry Nason was a Boston Globe sports editor for 33 years before retiring in 1974. He loved sports and was a strong media supporter of local marathon swimming. His articles chronicled the individual swims of IMSHOF Honorees Jim Doty and Ralph Willard. In addition, he brought to life the Boston Light Swim, life at the L Street Bathhouse and other events of the New England Marathon Swimming Association.

He received The Irving Davids/Captain Roger W. Wheeler Memorial Award from the International Swimming Hall of Fame in 1974 for his contribution to the administration of open water swimming.
