

Eva Morrison, Honor Swimmer, United States of America, 1973

Videos: Swim 1 Swim 2

Eva Morrison completed the 19.3 km Boston Light Swim more than 20 times and won the 1935 Dover Trophy in 15 hours and 55 minutes for a 28.9 km swim from Folkestone to Margate in the U.K. She trained to swim the English Channel at the same time as IMSHOF Honoree Gertrude Ederle – and made 3 unsuccessful attempts.

She served on the initial Board of Governors for the International Professional Swimmers' Association when it formed in 1927.

Expanded Biography \(Openwaterpedia\)

Long Swims Database \(Marathon Swimmers Federation\)